All event proceeds benefit Champion Oaks Ranch Children's Home, a nonprofit 501(c)(3), private placement, Christian ministry that provides a stable, loving home for at-risk youth to reside in while working through their personal and family challenges. While at Champion Oaks Ranch each child is focused on individual, group and family counseling, specialized therapy programs and academics. Each child is involved in activities, inside and outside of the home, that teach hands-on life skills that are designed to develop self-confidence, responsibility and accountability. Through the Champion Oaks Ranch program, each child is prepared for restoration and reunification with their family, society and the next phase of their life.
